Football Contest Rules

For the next week, within each of the ads on this page, you will find one or two scheduled high school, college or professional football games (12 total). To enter, on the form below, write down in numerical order the advertiser's name and the team you think will win the game. Each week, the contestant with the most correct answers will receive a $20 cash prize which will be redeemable at one of the advertisers. In case of a tie, one winner will be drawn from the group of the most correct picks. Contestants are required to fill out the official entry blank provided here or on-line. The corresponding advertiser's name and the game selection must be written next to the game number in order to qualify. All entries must be received by 5 p.m. Friday each week at the Hood River News office, 419 State St., Hood River, OR. or faxed to 541-386-6796 or sent via email by 5 p.m. Friday each week. All entries MUST include name and phone number. The winner's name will be announced in the following week's contest. If entries are not legible, they will be disqualified. All decisions are final. One entry per person, per week, but the entire family may participate. Employees of the Hood River News, Columbia Gorge Press and their immediate families are not eligible to participate.
